

SOCIOLOGY | BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN SOCIOLOGY (GENDER AND SEXUALITY STUDIES)

The Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science in Sociology (Gender and Sexuality Studies) at Fort Hays State University offers a multidisciplinary education that enables students to explore how social structures, institutions, and cultural beliefs shape personal identity and the self. The programs emphasize the impact of gender and sexuality across individual experiences, organizations, and global systems.

Through a comprehensive curriculum in sociological theory, feminist thought, and research design, students gain the analytical skills needed to examine the intersections of identity, values, and systemic practices. The programs also provide focused training in grant writing and research presentation, equipping graduates with the tools to apply sociological principles in professional settings and to pursue advanced studies or human-centered careers.

Program Requirements

General Education

All undergraduate degrees require completion of the Kansas Systemwide General Education (<https://catalog.fhsu.edu/general-education/>).

Courses identified with ^{GE} on this page may satisfy a general education requirement in addition to the identified degree requirement. Students who apply a degree requirement to satisfy a general education requirement will typically add an equal number of hours to the university elective category. This flexibility may allow you to complete a minor or certificate within the 120 hour degree. Transfer students are especially encouraged to select these courses in completing General Education requirements to maximize the likelihood of completing the degree with 120 credit hours.
