

PHILOSOPHY | BACHELOR OF ARTS: RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

The Religious Education and Community Engagement degree prepares students who wish to enter faith connected employment. The interdisciplinary nature of the proposed program, which includes coursework in philosophy, religion, leadership, sociology, history, and marketing, and the skills developed in these courses would prepare students for a range of professional careers within religious and community settings. From roles like youth, children's, or music minister to non-profit employee, fundraiser, or executive director the Religious Education and Community Engagement degree provides practical skills at an exceptional value for online or on-campus students.

Program Requirements

General Education

All undergraduate degrees require completion of the Kansas Systemwide General Education (<https://catalog.fhsu.edu/general-education/>).

Courses identified with ^{GE} on this page may satisfy a general education requirement in addition to the identified degree requirement. Students who apply a degree requirement to satisfy a general education requirement will typically add an equal number of hours to the university elective category. This flexibility may allow you to complete a minor or certificate within the 120 hour degree. Transfer students are especially encouraged to select these courses in completing General Education requirements to maximize the likelihood of completing the degree with 120 credit hours.
