

APPLIED BUSINESS | MASTER OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES (WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT)

The Accelerated MPS in Workforce Development is designed to allow high-achieving undergraduate students in the Bachelor of Science in Business Education (Corporate Communication or Talent Development) to begin graduate coursework early. Students are allowed to use 6 credit hours of graduate work to count both toward the MPS and BSBE degree programs.

Degree Requirements

Once admitted to the accelerated program, students must successfully complete all undergraduate degree requirements. Six credit hours of coursework can be shared between the MPS and BSBE, pending a "B" grade or better in all accelerated courses.
